

TriQuint Shareholders Approve Merger-of-Equals with RF Micro Devices

September 5, 2014

HILLSBORO, Ore.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- TriQuint Semiconductor, Inc. (NASDAQ:TQNT), a leading RF solutions supplier and technology innovator, today announced the preliminary results of its special meeting of shareholders held earlier this afternoon to approve its agreement and plan of merger and reorganization with RF Micro Devices, Inc. and Rocky Holding, Inc.

TriQuint shareholders voted to approve the following:

- the merger agreement;
- the absence of a provision in Rocky Holding's amended and restated certificate of incorporation that would provide for the election of directors of Rocky Holding by majority vote, which provision is instead located in Rocky Holding's amended and restated bylaws;
- the compensation arrangements, by non-binding advisory vote, for TriQuint's named executive officers in connection with the merger; and
- the amended TriQuint 2013 Incentive Plan.

Earlier today, RFMD's shareholders voted to approve the merger agreement and other matters.

Ralph Quinsey, President and CEO of TriQuint, said, "TriQuint's shareholders today endorsed an industry-shaping event. We are combining two industry pioneers and recognized innovators to create a diversified market leader with the scale to better serve the increasingly complex needs of our customers."

TriQuint and RFMD anticipate the closing of the transaction will occur in the second half of calendar 2014 subject to the receipt of required regulatory approval and other customary closing conditions.
