RFMD(R) Announces Filing and Effectiveness of Registration Statement on Form S-3 to Register Resale of $375 Million Aggregate Principal Amount of Convertible Subordinated Notes

GREENSBORO, N.C., July 5 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- RF Micro Devices, Inc. (Nasdaq: RFMD), a global leader in the design and manufacture of high-performance radio systems and solutions for applications that drive mobile communications, announced today that it filed a registration statement on Form S-3 with the Securities and Exchange Commission on July 3, 2007, which was effective immediately upon filing. The registration statement relates to the resale by the holders of RFMD's $200,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 0.75% Convertible Subordinated Notes due 2012 and $175,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 1.00% Convertible Subordinated Notes due 2014 (together, the "notes") and the shares of RFMD's common stock, no par value per share, issuable upon conversion of the notes. RFMD issued and sold the notes in April 2007 in a private placement pursuant to Rule 144A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

The registration statement was filed in satisfaction of RFMD's obligations under a registration rights agreement entered into in connection with the April 2007 private placement of the notes. Because RFMD is a "well-known seasoned issuer," the registration statement was automatically effective upon filing with the SEC. The prospectus included as part of the registration statement will be used by the selling shareholders named therein to resell the notes and shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the notes. RFMD will not sell any securities under this prospectus or receive any of the proceeds from the sale of the notes or the shares of RFMD common stock issuable upon conversion of the notes.

This press release does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any of these securities and shall not constitute an offer, solicitation or sale in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale is unlawful.

This press release includes "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements about our plans, objectives, representations and contentions and are not historical facts and typically are identified by use of terms such as "may," "will," "should," "could," "expect," "plan," "anticipate," "believe," "estimate," "predict," "potential," "continue" and similar words, although some forward-looking statements are expressed differently. You should be aware that the forward-looking statements included herein represent management's current judgment and expectations, but our actual results, events and performance could differ materially from those expressed or implied by forward-looking statements. We do not intend to update any of these forward-looking statements or publicly announce the results of any revisions to these forward-looking statements, other than as is required under the federal securities laws. RF Micro Devices' business is subject to numerous risks and uncertainties, including variability in quarterly operating results, the rate of growth and development of wireless markets, risks associated with the operation of our wafer fabrication facilities, molecular beam epitaxy facility, assembly facility and test and tape and reel facilities, our ability to attract and retain skilled personnel and develop leaders, variability in production yields, our ability to reduce costs and improve gross margins by implementing innovative technologies, our ability to bring new products to market, our ability to adjust production capacity in a timely fashion in response to changes in demand for our products, dependence on a limited number of customers, and dependence on third parties. These and other risks and uncertainties, which are described in more detail in RF Micro Devices' most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, could cause actual results and developments to be materially different from those expressed or implied by any of these forward-looking statements.
